Published by Authority.

From Tuesday August 4. to Saturday August 8. 1741.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the Fourth Day of Auguſt, 1741.

PRESENT,

Their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices in Council.

Whereas by an Act of Parliament of the laſt Seſſion, entituled, "An Act to prohibit for a "Time therein limited, the Exportation of "Corn, Grain, (Rice excepted) Meal, Malt, "Flour, Bread, Biſcuit, Starch, Beef, Pork, "and Bacon;" it is among other Things enacted, That no Corn, Malt, or other the ſaid Proviſions, ſhall be exported out of this Kingdom, and other the Places therein mentioned, before the 25th of December 1741, under the Penalties thereby inflicted; but ſubject to ſuch Proviſoes and Exceptions as are therein contained. But by the ſaid Act Power is given to his Majeſty, when he ſhall judge it beneficial to the Kingdom, to permit the Exportation of thoſe Commodities, by his Royal Proclamation to be iſſued by the Advice of his Privy Council, or by his Majeſty's Order in Council to be publiſhed in the Gazette, from Time to Time to permit and ſuffer all and every Perſon or Perſons, Natives and Foreigners, but not any particular Perſon or Perſons, at any Time or Times before the 25th Day of December, 1741, to export or carry out of this Kingdom of Great Britain or Ireland, or the Britiſh Plantations in America, or other the Dominions of the Crown of Great Britain in Europe, or out of all or any of them, all or any of the ſaid Commodities, in ſuch manner as by the ſaid Act is directed. And whereas by the Fall of the Price of Barley and Malt, and the Proſpect of a plentiful Harveſt this Summer, there is great Reaſon to think that no Inconvenience can happen to the Publick by taking off the ſaid Prohibition, as to Malt; and on the contrary, their Excellencies are of Opinion, that the Liberty of exporting it will be of Benefit to this Kingdom; It is therefore hereby ordered by their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices, with the Advice of his Majeſty's Privy Council, That it ſhall and may be lawful from henceforth, notwithſtanding the ſaid Act, to and for all and every Perſon and Perſons, Natives and Foreigners, to export and carry Malt out of this Kingdom, in the ſame Manner, and ſubject to the ſame Reſtrictions, Regulations, Terms and Conditions as they might do, or have done, in Caſe this Act had not been made, and no otherwiſe. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Treaſury, the Lords Commiſſioners of the Admiralty, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the neceſſary Directions herein as to them may reſpectively appertain.

William Sharpe.

Neiſs, July 25. On the 16th Inſtant Te Deum was ſolemnly Sung in this Place and in the Camp at Buhlau, in Thankſgiving and Rejoycing for the Coronation of the Queen of Hungary: On which Occaſion a triple Diſcharge was made of the Cannon on our Ramparts, and of the Small Arms of our Garriſon, and the like was done in the Army. A Number of Men are daily employed in ſtrengthening the Fortifications of this Place. On the 20th General Count Brown ſet out Poſt from hence for Prague. There are frequent Skirmiſhes between the Pruſſian Huſſars and ours: But the two Armies continue quiet in their Camps.

Vienna, July 29. A few Days ago the Danube overflowed large Tracts of Ground in the Neighbourhood of this City, and did great Damage in ſeveral Parts of the City itſelf; but the River is now ſunk to its ordinary Channel. This Inundation is attributed to the great Rains which have lately fallen in the Tiroleſe and in Bavaria, and ſwelled the Rivers that fall into the Danube. The 26th being the Feſtival of St. Anne, whoſe Name the Archdutcheſs, Siſter to the Queen of Hungary, bears, it was celebrated at Court by her Majeſty, who came hither from Preſbourg, and dined that Day in the Apartment of the ſecond Empreſs Dowager, accompanied by the Grand Duke and Prince Charles of Lorrain; and in the Evening her Majeſty went back with them to Presbourg. Several Regiments of Horſe and Foot, which have been ordered from Hungary to Bohemia and Upper Auſtria, are on their March, and ſome of them have paſſed by this City.
